‘Learning today for a better tomorrow’

3rd June 2020

Dear Parents,

I’m sure many of you by now have heard the statement today from Kirsty Williams the Welsh Education Minister, she has announced that schools will be returning from 29th June until 27th July.

This period of 4 weeks will be in Kirsty’s words for pupils “to check in and catch up”. At this point we do not have any further details of the changes we are expected to make but school life as we know it will not be the same when we return. Once we receive the guidance document from the education minister next week, we will have 2 ½ weeks to put all changes in place in readiness for 29th June.

We will aim to keep you updated as regularly as possible, there are many procedures and systems that will need to be changed in a short period of time and as always we will have the wellbeing and safety of our pupils at the forefront of everything we do.

Thank you for your patience and co-operation.

Yours Sincerely

Mrs Jayne Davies
