'Children come first'

5th June 2020

Dear Parents,

As you are aware on Wednesday afternoon, 03/06/2020, the Education Minister, Kirsty Williams, published details of the next phase for schools in Wales, providing an opportunity for your child to "Check in, Catch Up, Prepare for Summer and September".

As part of this statement, the Minister confirmed the intention that schools will plan to start the next phase on 29 June, with the summer term extended by a week, ending on 27 July. Furthermore, the last weeks of this summer term will be used to make sure pupils, staff and parents are prepared – mentally, emotionally and practically – for the new normal in September. The autumn half-term break will be extended to two weeks.

A link to the statement and a summary of the statement can be found overleaf.

Your child's safety and wellbeing are our priority and we are waiting for the detailed guidance that will help us to plan and prepare for this next phase. Welsh Government has announced that this further guidance will be published next week, this will include information on managing facilities and logistical arrangements, including buildings, resources, cleaning and transport.

We understand that you will have many questions and we are working closely with the Local Authority and the regional consortium so that we can provide you with the information you need to prepare for this next phase.

As part of keeping in regular communication with you, we intend to share with you a questionnaire from the Local Authority to hear your views, which in turn will inform our planning. This is likely to be sent to you next week, please keep a look out for this and please complete as soon as you receive it. These next few weeks will be very busy as we work to complete our risk assessments and prepare the school site however, please be reassured, keeping you and your children informed remains our priority.

What

- Schools will start the next phase on 29 June, with the term extended by a week, therefore ending on 27 July.
- Autumn half-term break will be expanded to two weeks.
- Childcare providers will also increase the numbers of children in attendance from 9 June.

How

- In each school there will be a phased approach.
- Year groups will be split into cohorts with staggered starts, lessons and breaks.
- It is expected that this will mean, at most, a third of pupils present at any one time, though schools may need time to reach this level of operation.

- Much smaller classes will provide secure dedicated time with teachers and classmates.
- This time will include online and personalised classroom experience, getting children and teachers ready for a similar experience in September.

Why

- We are creating the opportunity for children to Check in, Catch Up and Prepare before the start of September.
- Since the decision to close schools for statutory provision, our understanding of the virus and its longer-term impacts has continued to develop.
- We know that we are going to have to live with it for some time.
- We know that it will remain our biggest challenge for the foreseeable future.
- We know that the classroom experience will be different for a long time to come.

What next

- Next week, the Welsh Government will publish guidance to support childcare, schools, as well as further and higher education institutions.
- This will include information on managing their facilities and logistical arrangements, including buildings, resources, cleaning and transport.
