DATE FOR THE DIARY

The Grouse Inn has arranged a Christmas Coffee Morning in aid of Ysgol Carrog PTFA on Sunday 7th December, 9am-11.30am. There will be cakes for sale, a tombola, games, raffle and a surprise visitor in red!!!

Please come along and support.

YOUNG PARENTS GROUP

There is a young parent group every Friday morning, 10.30-11.30am at Llygag Community Room. It is free to attend. The group is open to any young parent or those expecting children who are aged 25 or under. The sessions are informal, offering children a safe place to play while young people can meet, make friends and speak to youth workers about topics you may want to know more about. The sessions will include practical parenting support, help with family finances, training and access to food and family activities. For more information contact Charlotte Morris on 07880300420

LEARNING OPEN DAY EVENT

Canolfan Ni have arranged a community learning open day in collaboration with Working Denbighshire to be held at Llangollen library on Wednesday 19th November, 10am-2pm. This is an opportunity for you to find out more about local learning and training opportunities, meet employers and education providers, take part in taster sessions and chat to staff about what support and guidance is available to you.

Canolfan Ni are also offering transport from Corwen to Llangollen to access the event, please contact them on 01490266004 to book a seat.

TOGETHERNESS

Togetherness is a free online learning environment developed by psychologists and health practitioners providing accessible learning about emotional health and wellbeing. (The programme was previously the Solihul Approach that some of you may have used in the past). Access to the digital learning hub will help you to understand more about child development, wellbeing, how the brain changes as children develop and much more to help you connect with your children and make sure they thrive.
